The United States has entered its 17 year of warfare in Afghanistan. We are yet to produce a coherent policy on Syria's civil war. Saudi Arabia continues to bomb Yemeni civilians with American bombs as they experience the largest cholera epidemic of recent times. The Iran Nuclear Deal is at threat of being nullified. Our troops continue to be put at risk. Our greatest service to them is to bring them home.

Bill Summary of S.J. Res. 40 from Congress.Gov written by the Congressional Research Service

This joint resolution prohibits the transfer to Saudi Arabia of U.S. air-to-ground munitions until the President certifies to Congress that: (1) Saudi Arabia and its coalition partners are taking all feasible precautions to reduce the risk of civilian harm and exercising proportional use of force in the course of military actions and are making demonstrable efforts to facilitate the flow of critical humanitarian aid and commercial goods; and (2) Saudi Arabia is taking effective measures to target designated foreign terrorist organizations, including al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula and affiliates of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant, as part of its military operations in Yemen.

Congressional Research Service

Directs the President to remove U.S. Armed Forces from hostilities in Yemen, except those engaged in operations directed at Al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula, within 30 days after adoption of this concurrent resolution, unless: (1) the President requests and Congress authorizes a later date, or (2) a declaration of war or specific authorization for the use of the Armed Forces has been enacted.
