Deregulated campaign finance laws are at the core of special interests influence on Capitol Hill. Elected officials spend more time searching to fund their next campaign than they do protecting the interests of their constituents. Each of your landing pages first ask is for money. Honest campaigns should focus on winning people over with their integrity and moral conscience but instead they focus on dollars.

Question 1:

Would you support a 28th Amendment that reserves the rights granted under the Constitution to real people and not corporations, thus overturning Citizens United?
